Present and previous non-OGC ministries you have been involved with (include relevant training, community evangelism, work with internationals from your target group, etc.):

Date	Duration	Ministry description	Your role
-------------	-----------------	-----------------------------	------------------

What are your spiritual gifts/or special abilities that will contribute to your missionary ministry?

How did God work in your life to bring you to this decision regarding missionary service? Was there any particular scripture that was important to you in this decision?

What sort of time frame is involved in preparation and training within the organization before active service on the field?

All OGC missionaries are expected to send regular updates via email to the e-news (ttstead@cfl.rr.com) and to visit the church and give personal updates when you are home if at all possible. Can you commit to these expectations, if supported?
